Notice to Exhibitors Regarding the Use of Music

This notice shall serve as notice that any use of music from either tapes, records, CD's, audio/visual presentations, live entertainment, or radio (over speakers) may require that you obtain permission for the use of that music under the U.S. copyright laws.

If you use music that is subject to the U.S. copyright laws, it is your responsibility to procure any and all necessary licenses or permission for the use of the music.

By exhibiting in the space contracted for, you, the exhibitor, agree that you shall not use any music from tapes, records, CD's, audio/visual presentations, live entertainment, or radio (over speakers) without complying with any and all applicable laws and regulations required by U.S. copyright law. You the exhibitor further agree to indemnify and hold harmless North American Expositions Company from and against any and all claims, damages, losses, and expenses, including attorneys' fees arising out of, or related to, your failure to comply with any and all applicable laws and regulations under the U.S. copyright laws.
